Chapter 1 by Shelby Lawrence

She fell upon the ground, with skinned knees and palms. Her dusty blond hair was plastered to her skin, and her white button up shirt had become clear from the cold gush of water that had sprayed her on the side of the road. Her whole body trembled violently, and another car zipped by, sending a new gush of sludgy, gritty water all over her. With a surge of energy, she forced herself to stand up, and continue walking. A pick up truck met up beside her, and slowed down.

The window rolled down,

"Delilah? What in Hell are you doing out here?" The man inside yelled. He had hair, black as night with a few flecks of gray throughout. His brown eyes emitted kindness and warmth.

"Oh, hey Dr. Aeron. Just walking home." She shivered.

"Well get in here! You'll catch your death!"

"No thanks! Not after what you just said before I left!" She sped up her pace.

"Is it really that weird to be excited that you ahve superpowers now?" He kept at the same speed.

"No! I'm cursed! I have four blades in my fists, I can float! I have a fricken tail that grows when I will it!" She yelled.

"Yah! And that's awesome! As your boss, friend, and doctor I demand you get in here." He sped up and matched her pace.

"Whatcha gonna do? Fire me? You'll never find another secretary as good as me, and who you can trust with your secret!"

"Maybe i will fire you..."

She stopped walking, and paused for a moment. And then she got in the truck. "Happy now?"
